BIAS VIOLENCE

DON'T LOOK THE OTHER WAY!

Bias violence refers to violence motivated by the perpetrator's prejudice against the victim. The perpetrator picks the victim based on their otherness. Foreigners, members of ethnic minorities, people with minority sexual orientations or gender identities, homeless people, people with disabilities, elderly people, members of subcultures, members of various religious groups, and others may be targeted by bias violence. The same applies to majority members if they are attacked because of prejudice.

Bias violence may look like:

threats

mockery, slurs

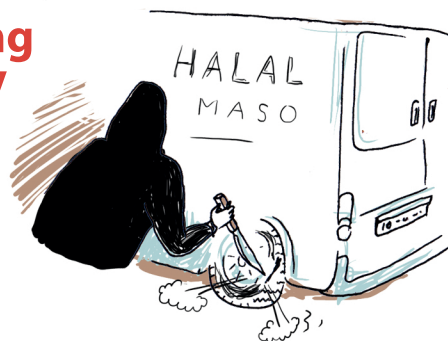

bullying

sexual assault
or duress

arson attack

damaging property

Hnus !!!

Chcípnete, čmoudi!

Přišli jste nás všechny zabit? Vypadněte!!!

výhružky a útoky online
threats and attacks

physical assault

defamation
or inciting
hatred

WHAT YOU CAN DO:

- › If you're in imminent danger, please go to a public place (a shop, a post office) and ask a concrete person for help.

- › Dial 158 or 112 to contact the police or go to any police station to file a criminal complaint.

- › If you have been injured, get medical help and have your injuries documented.

- › Get professional assistance.

Bias violence may qualify as a criminal offence or a petty offence.

You can also sue the perpetrator in civil proceedings.
